UFC veterans Randy Couture and Mark Coleman have agreed to meet in the cage, Sherdog.com reported Tuesday afternoon. They are looking at co-headlining UFC 109 set to take place Feb. 6, 2010 at the Mandalay Bay in Las Vegas. This will be the first time the pair has fought in the cage, but not the first time they have met in combat. The two matched up back at the 1989 Olympic Festival at Oklahoma State, in which Coleman took the match by one point. Couture is fresh off his win last Saturday against Brandon Vera, while Coleman is still nursing a knee injury he sustained. A match up between Anderson Silva and Vitor Belford could possibly be set as the main event of the evening, but it has yet to be officially confirmed. Check back for more details as this and other MMA headlines develop.
